William Kelly Recognized in Marquis Who's Who

William Kelly, Broker/Owner of The Real Estate Store and founder of RealEstateRelated.com, has been recognized by Marquis Who's Who for his contributions to the real estate industry. This acknowledgement highlights his career achievements and his dedication to upholding a high standard of professional excellence.

Kelly began his real estate career at A.G.C. Realty in Hampton Bays, where he gained foundational experience that led to corporate positions with CENTURY 21 and GMAC Home Services. During this time, he developed expertise in real estate systems, franchising, training, and agent retention. He has also held leadership roles as Sales Manager and Managing Broker at CENTURY 21 Almar & Associates and Prudential Florida WCI Realty. Kelly is licensed as a broker in both New York and Florida.

Staying ahead of industry changes while mentoring the next generation of real estate professionals, Kelly works through his brokerage and RealEstateRelated.com to position real estate professionals and related service providers as trusted community resources. He achieves this by offering education that aligns with current trends and best practices.

With a bachelor's degree in organizational management, Kelly is a member of the Regional MLS and the National Association of Realtors. He has received the 5-Star Award for customer service ten times and has been recognized as a Market Leader in both Forbes and Fortune magazines. Moving forward, Kelly is focused on expanding his brand and making a continued, meaningful impact on the real estate industry.
